Parliamentary evening for international scientists

Dear Sir or Madam,

As international professors, group leaders, doctoral students and postdocs, you play a key role in our Saxon research institutes, universities and colleges. It is important to us to honor your valuable work with an official event.

Together with the research alliance DRESDEN-concept, the Leipzig Science Network, the TU Chemnitz and the TU Bergakademie Freiberg, I would like to invite you to a parliamentary evening at the center of Saxon politics. The president of the Saxon State Parliament, Dr. Matthias Rößler, is patron of the event.

After the ceremony, there will be an opportunity to exchange ideas with members of the Saxon State Parliament and members of the cabinet at a reception.

We look forward to welcoming you in the plenary hall of the Saxon State Parliament (Bernhard-von-Lindenau-Platz 1, 01067 Dresden) on Tuesday, October 17, 2023 at 7 pm.
