

Scholarship for international students of TU Bergakademie Freiberg

Declaration on data acquisition

National and European data protection regulations serve to protect our personal privacy. They also regulate how public institutions and private companies deal with our personal data. Please take the time to read this declaration on data acquisition and check the squares which apply to you. Please enclose and attach the printed personally signed declaration to your written application.

I do herewith explicitly, voluntarily and revocably agree the following:

For being chosen for a scholarship and, if appropriate, for granting a scholarship my personal data will be processed.

If the scholarship is granted, my data will be saved for a period of approximately 10 years after the end of funding, depending on the instructions given by the sponsor. In case my application will not be successful, my data will be saved for the period of 1 year as long as no other application has been submitted. Subsequently, this data will immediately be deleted.

Photos of me taken during the event organised for the presentation of the scholarship certificate may be published on the websites of TU Bergakademie Freiberg and printed in publications of TU Bergakademie Freiberg. Furthermore, these photos may be provided to press organisations and sponsors required for their work in the awarding of scholarships.

I acknowledge that:

1. My personal data can be released to the authorities of TU Bergakademie Freiberg and to the public and, if applicable, to private external sources who are funding my scholarship or subsequently possible granting of the scholarship and as well as for accounting purposes.
2. I can revoke this consent at the International Centre of TU Bergakademie Freiberg at any time.
3. In case I revoke my data and this data is no longer required for accounting purposes according to the rules because the scholarship has already been granted, my data can immediately be deleted and submitted documents can be destroyed. The scholarship I applied for will in this case no longer be granted.
