Work place design and organisation

What can you expect?

Learn the basics of organisational structure and process design

Find out more about production systems and value stream mapping

Work with digital tools for control and automation

Deepen your knowledge of workplace design, ergonomics and efficiency

Learning objectives

Expertise

Structured thinking

Practical problem-solving

Team and project work

Student competition

Your benefits

In-depth and practical specialist knowledge

Insight into industrial and organisational practice

Networking and contact with potential employers